Were You Ever Humbugged?

Do you know the meaning of the word, "Humbug?" If not, then just go up against some scheme where you are made to believe that you'll get something for nothing, and you'll get WISE, yes, very wise, when you take your "bargain" home and examine it. We have no "something for nothing" sales—all our goods are of the very best quality, and we sell them at a very reasonable profit. Isn't that business? Think, look, before you leap.

EVERYTHING STARTS

At H. T. LOGAN'S Clothing Store, Lancaster, Kentucky,

Saturday, December 7th, 1907

and lasts Fifteen Days, $30,000.00 worth of Men's and Boy's high grade Clothing, Shoes, Hats and Furnishing Goods thrown on the market at sensation-ally reduced prices. Opens Saturday, December 7 at 9 o'clock a. m.

A TERRIFYING SALE sending death and destruction to high prices, demoralizing competition. Will bring thousands of people from far and near. Here is the proposition briefly told. We over-bought thousands of dollars worth of merchandise and must unload. The continuous mild weather finds us with this great big stock and we must positively turn same into money in fifteen days time. We must raise $10,000.00 in the next fifteen days, therefore this store and its contents will be the scene of the greatest slaughter in prices ever inaugurated in this part of Kentucky and will long be remembered by the thousands of people who will attend this sale.

$30,000.00 worth of Fall and Winter Clothing, Shoes, Hats and Furnishing Goods to be thrown upon the market to be sold in fifteen days time, beginning Saturday, December 7 at 9 o'clock a. m. You cannot afford to miss this sale. To stay away is like throwing dollars away. Stop and think what it means.

STOP READ THINK ACT

H. T. Logan's magnificent stock of Clothing, Hats, Furnishing Goods, at the mercy of the people. Thousands of dollars worth of this stock has been especially selected for the Christmas Trade, but in our determination to raise $10,000.00 in cash in the next fifteen days. Everything must go regardless of cost. $10,000.00 in money must be raised, therefore heroic measures have been adopted. We ask the people of Lancaster and surrounding country to attend this sale and help us unload. Much of the actual cost and all profits have been sacrificed and you will be able to buy new stylish Fall and Winter Clothing, Shoes, Hats and Furnishing Goods for Men and Boys at less than half the usual prices. We state the situation modestly. No misstatements will be made throughout our advertising matter. Our record for the many years in this community is sufficient guarantee to the thousands who know us. We need your help.

Clothing, Shoes, Hats and Furnishing Goods, at Less than Half Price. Cost not Considered.

See our hand bill for prices on every article in the house. Sale lasts Fifteen Days and starts Saturday, December 7th, 1907 at 9 o'clock a. m.

Local Items.

Do your shopping now, before the rush.

Jas Stearns was given a verdict of $600 against J D Carter in the circuit court. Carter had cut Stearns with a knife some time ago near Cartersville.

The merchants have an exceptionally nice line of Xmas goods, and our advice is to go see them early before the stocks are all clawed over and the stocks broken.

Mr Jas E Lynn, one of Lincoln county's most prominent and influential citizens, died last Friday. His twin brother, Mr Jno G Lynn, died only a few days before.

The many Lancaster friends of Mrs Joseph Faulconer, who now resides in Danville, regret to learn of the death of her pet dog, "Patsy." The little dog was a great comfort to her.

The Kentucky Press Association will hold its mid winter meeting at the Seelbach, Louisville, Dec 27th. A most convenient and pleasant time for meeting, and a big crowd will be there.

D K Best, after a lingering illness, died last week. His nephew, Mr C F Evans, of the Q & C road, at Lexington, came for the remains, taking them to Richmond for interment. "Uncle Dave" was highly thought of by many Lancaster friends.

To Advertisers.

Please remember that this office is rushed just as you are, and that we cannot change ads unless "copy" is in office Monday. We positively can not attend to them any later during the rush season.

The Doll Sale.

Remember, the doll sale begins next Friday afternoon, Dec 18, and continues through Saturday. All are invited to call and see the handsome display. Chocolate, whipped cream and cake will be served for the small sum of five cents.

Circuit Court.

Court officials, lawyers and all who know, say this term of circuit court is the poorest they have ever experienced. There are some cases on the docket, but none of public interest or in which any considerable sum is involved. Judge Bell has been clearing up a lot of odds and ends when he adjourns court the dockets will be as clear as those in any county in the state.

Mother Hubbard at Rink.

The management of the Paint Lick skating rink has decided to give a Mother Hubbard party tomorrow (Friday) night, and a big time is looked forward to. The rink is proving the source of much pleasure and is largely patronized by old and young alike. A lot of new music has just been received which will add greatly to the enjoyment. Many Lancaster people attend the rink, and a big crowd will go up tomorrow night.

The Inauguration.

A big delegation of Garrard county people will attend the inauguration of Gov Augustus E Wilson at Frankfort next Tuesday. The railroad gives a rate of one fare, plus 25cts, making the trip inexpensive. You can leave Lancaster at five o'clock a m have all day in Frankfort and leave there late in afternoon reaching Lancaster at 8:30. The people of Frankfort have cast aside politics and are working to make this the biggest success ever achieved on similar occasions.

To Our Patrons.

As is usually the case just before the holidays, printing offices are crowded with work, consequently we will ask your indulgence for lack of reading matter in "The Record." Printing of fices have about three "good" months out of the twelve, and it behooves us to make hay while the sun shines.

Largest Man in Congress.

Congress met Monday. Our representative, Hon Harvey Helm, was on hand promptly. A dispatch from Washington says he is the next largest man in the Congress, another Kentuckian, Ollie James, being a little taller. They may out-measure Harvey in stature, but when it comes to his mental powers, he's the goods, all right, all right.

Nearing Completion.

In next issue of "The Record," we hope to present a picture of the new Kengarian. Mr Fox, the photographer, who is here every Saturday, will make a picture of the handsome new hotel if the weather is favorable. The house is about complete. All the plumbing and the heating apparatus is fully installed, as are the electric lights. When we present the picture we will give a detailed description of the building, which stands as a monument to those of our men who want to see Lancaster second to no town in first class facilities for taking care of the stranger within our gates.

Enterprising Citizen to Leave.

It is with much regret we note the determination of Judge J C Hemphill to make a change of residence and move to Louisville. He has a fine position there, and, as quickly as he can dispose of his business interests he will move to the Fall City. The firm of Hemphill & West advertise their entire stock at cost and will sell out as rapidly as possible. Judge Hemphill, who has spent his entire life in Lancaster, will be greatly missed in the community, having always been in the forefront in every effort for improvement. Mr West has not fully decided, but we trust will remain in Lancaster.

Old Soldiers Enjoy Day.

The M D Logan Camp, Confederate Veterans, was royally entertained at the home of Tinsley Bros., near town Thanksgiving day. A most bountiful dinner was served and everything done to bring joy and happiness to the hearts of the gallant old veterans who wore the gray. They are loud in their praise of the hospitable treatment and will remember the occasion with great pleasure. Those present and their respective ages were J G Doty, 78; J S Byers, 73; G W Thompson, 72; E M Norman, 73; J H Arnold, 70; T M Arnold, 69; Jerome Tinsley, 68; J A Doty, 67; Homer Tinsley, 65; R R Denton, 64; J A Bratton, 63; J W Royston, 63; I N Myers, 69.

To Confederate Veterans.

To the dearly loved and venerated members of Camp M D Logan. I wish to express to you my sincere appreciation of your presence in my home on the 20th inst. The privilege of affording you a day peculiarly your own was to me a great one, and I hope each of you may refer to it with pleasure and a sense that it is good thus to meet in fraternal love, emphasizing the high principles that moved you to duty in days gone by; cementing the bonds of brotherhood, and perpetuating the patriotism of true sons of a true cause. Wishing each of you a long life and all good, both temporal and spiritual, I am, Respectfully,
(Mrs.) IDA TINSLEY.

They Are Tired of it.

Shelby county farmers, like land-owners in other parts of the State, are justly incensed with the action of pot-hunters and alleged sportsmen who trespass on their lands, says the Shelby Record. It has been considered by many in the past that birds and rabbits are public property, and that the privilege was theirs to hunt where they pleased. To irresponsible hunters, who deem a ten cent rabbit of more importance to them than a forty dollar steer is to the farmer may be attributed the determination that is becoming universal, to strictly enforce the laws in reference to trespass.

Few farmers will object to giving permission to careful, responsible men to hunt on their premises, if permission is asked. If they deny that privilege, it is their right, as no man is more privileged to hunt on any farm than he is to enter any home uninvited. The laws will be enforced in the future, and many who can find more profitable employment in "shucking" corn than in hitting or missing "bunny," will find themselves in serious trouble if they don't abide by it.

Spoonamore.

On Nov 10th, 1907, the 13 months old baby of Mr and Mrs Geo Spoonamore died after a very brief illness. She was not thought to be dangerously sick even a few hours before she passed away. Little Margaret was their only child. She was exceptionally bright and promising, a constant inspiration to the home of this young father and mother. Only those who have passed through such ordeals can know what this meant to them. They are bearing with fortitude this great sorrow. In this loss Heaven is the richer. They share the sympathy of all the good people that knew them. Little Margaret has only gone before to beckon loved ones on to the better place. May the Lord bless and comfort their hearts and prepare them and all loved to meet where parting shall never come and tears shall be no more. F M T

Mr John Dunn, who is attending school in Lexington, and Miss Ethel Dunn, teacher in the High School, in Stanford, spent the Thanksgiving holidays with their mother, Mrs W A Price.

The following is taken from a Washington paper:—Miss Elizabeth Master-son Leach, of this city, and Millard Farrar West, of Washington and Lancaster, Ky., were married at noon Wednesday in the home of Senator and Mrs Thomas H Carter, of Montana, on Sixteenth street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev Herbert Scott Smith, pastor of St. Margaret's Episcopal Church. Quantities of white chrysanthemums and palms formed the decorations in the drawing rooms, and in the dining room, where the breakfast was served immediately after ceremony, the table was prettily decorated with white and gold. Only about fifteen or twenty guests mostly relatives, were present. A D Rogers Sullivan, of Plainfield, N. J., played the wedding march. Senator Carter, at one time a resident of Kentucky, an old friend of the bride's father, gave her in marriage. Her bridegroom was of white satin crepe trimmed with Duchess lace, and her veil of lace was a family heirloom having been worn by her grandmother and her mother at their weddings. The veil was arranged with a coronet of the lace and the bride bouquet was a shower of bride roses and lilies of the valley. The bride was unattended, but the best man was the bridegroom's brother, Louis E West, himself a bridegroom of a few weeks ago. After the breakfast, Mr and Mrs West left Washington for a northern bridal trip. They will reside in Washington, as Mr West has a responsible and lucrative position here in the Bureau of Internal Revenue. The bride is the daughter of E O Leach, formerly director of the mint, and at the time of his death Vice President of the National Bank of Commerce, of New York city.

All parties are requested to turn their lights out after business hours. In case they fail to do it the current will be cut off from them. Remember it is no benefit to you to let your lights burn after business hours, and by you turning them off greatly helps the Electric Light Co. These rules will be strictly enforced from now on.

The above rates are as low as can be made and run an Electric Light Plant, so you must turn your lights off after business hours. Respectfully,

Lancaster Electric Light Co.

Saves for Wives.
The 1000 of castor oil is safe in use in Wives is limited. Many causes have contributed to this result. In the first place burglary is not common, and "crackmen" are practically unknown. Then, the danger of fire is not great when all the buildings are built of stone or brick. Police protection and fire prevention leave little to be desired along that line. Lastly, the conservative methods and the economical bent of business men of all classes make them satisfied with lock and key safes, some of very ancient patterns. Notwithstanding these facts, there is an opening for combination safes on account of the number of new enterprises established annually, for safe dealers report that they frequently take orders for such safes. Ordinarily such safes are made to order, and the cheaper price of American safes should give them an advantage with such purchasers.

Here's Good Advice.
O S Woolever, one of the best known merchants of Rapsville, N Y, says: "If you are ever troubled with piles, apply Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It cured me of them for good 20 years ago." Guaranteed for sores, wounds, burns or abrasions. 25c at R E McRoberts drug store.

November Nomenclature.
November was called by the ancient Saxons "winet month," or "wind month," on account of the gales then prevalent. It was also named the "blot month," or "blood month," from the ancient practice of then slaughtering cattle for the winter provisions. It is said that the Roman senators wished to name the month after Tiberius, as months had already been named after Julius Caesar and Augustus, but the emperor, like Canute, felt that it was possible to have too much flattery and refused, remarking: "What will you do, conscript fathers, if you have 12 Caesars?"

A Dangerous Deadlock.
That sometimes terminates fatally, is the stoppage of liver and bowel functions. To quickly end this condition without disagreeable sensations, Dr King's New Life should always be your remedy. Guaranteed absolutely satisfactory in every case or money back, at R E McRoberts drug store. 25c.
